PROXY STATEMENT

FOR

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

MAY 17, 2001

This Proxy Statement is furnished by The Williams Companies, Inc. ("Williams"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Williams to be used at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the foregoing Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and at any and all adjournments of said meeting. The term "Company" also includes subsidiaries where the context requires.

SOLICITATION AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES AND VOTING

Execution and return of the enclosed proxy will not affect a stockholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting of Stockholders and to vote in person. A stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. A stockholder may revoke the proxy prior to its exercise by delivering written notice of revocation to the Secretary of Williams, by executing a later dated proxy, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Properly executed proxies in the accompanying form, received in due time and not previously revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof as specified therein by the person giving the proxy, but, if no specification is made, the shares represented by proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors.

Williams will pay the expenses of this proxy solicitation, including the cost of preparing and mailing the Proxy Statement and proxy. Such expenses may also include the charges and expenses of banks, brokerage firms, and other custodians, nominees, or fiduciaries for forwarding proxies and proxy material to beneficial owners of Williams' Common Stock. Williams expects to solicit proxies primarily by mail, but directors, officers, employees, and agents of Williams may also solicit proxies in person or by telephone or by other electronic means. In addition, Williams has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for which Williams will pay an estimated $9,500 in fees, plus expenses and disbursements. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy were first mailed to stockholders on or about April 4, 2001.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum is present, proposals to be voted on at the Annual Meeting, other than the election of directors which requires a plurality of the votes cast, will be decided by a majority of the votes cast by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, present in person or represented by proxy, unless the proposal relates to matters on which more than a majority vote is required under Williams' Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, its By-laws, the laws of the State of Delaware under whose laws Williams is incorporated, or other applicable law.

A stockholder may, with respect to the election of directors: (i) vote for the election of all nominees named herein; (ii) withhold authority to vote for all such nominees; or (iii) vote for the election of all such nominees other than any nominees with respect to whom the vote is specifically withheld by indicating in the space provided on the proxy. A stockholder may, with respect to each other matter to be voted upon: (i) vote for the matter; (ii) vote against the matter; or (iii) abstain from voting on the matter.

Votes withheld from a nominee for election as a director or votes on other matters that reflect abstentions or broker non-votes (i.e., shares as to which the record owner has not received instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares on a matter as to which, under the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange, the record owner does not have authority to vote without such instruction) will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for the purpose of determining a quorum but will not be counted as votes cast. A majority of the votes properly cast is required to ratify the appointment of the auditor. Accordingly, abstentions will be counted in tabulating the votes cast and, therefore, will have the same effect as a vote against the appointment of the auditor. Broker non-votes will not be counted in tabulating the votes cast.

As a matter of policy, proxies and voting tabulations that identify individual stockholders are kept confidential. Such documents are made available only to those who process the proxy cards, tabulate the vote, and serve as inspectors of election, none of whom are Company employees, and certain employees of Williams responsible for the Annual Meeting. The vote of any stockholder is not disclosed except as may be necessary to meet legal requirements.

Only holders of Williams' Common Stock of record at the close of business on March 23, 2001, will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. Williams had 484,040,320 shares of Common Stock outstanding on the record date, and each share is entitled to one vote.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Williams' Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, provides for three classes of directors of as nearly equal size as possible and further provides that the total number of directors shall be determined by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors, except that the total number of directors may not be less than five nor more than 17. The term of each class of directors is normally three years, and the term of one class expires each year in rotation.

Six individuals, five of whom are currently directors of Williams, have been nominated for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. Four have been nominated for a three-year term, one has been nominated for a two-year term, and one has been nominated for a one-year term. Eight directors will continue in office to serve pursuant to their prior elections. In accordance with the recommendation of the Nominating Committee, the Board of Directors proposes that the following nominees be elected: Messrs. Glenn A. Cox, Thomas H. Cruikshank, Charles M. Lillis, George A. Lorch, Gordon R. Parker, and Joseph H. Williams.

In order to maintain balance in the three classes of directors, as required by the By-laws, Mr. Lorch, who was elected to the Board of Directors in March 2001, is standing for election as a Class II director for a two-year term expiring in May 2003. Pursuant to Williams' retirement policy for Directors, Mr. Glenn A. Cox will retire in conjunction with the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and is standing for election for a one-year term expiring in May 2002. The remaining nominees have been nominated for full three-year terms expiring in May 2004.

The persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy, who have been designated by the Board of Directors, intend to vote, unless otherwise instructed in such proxy, for the election of Messrs. Glenn A. Cox, Thomas H. Cruikshank, Charles M. Lillis, George A. Lorch, Gordon R. Parker, and Joseph H. Williams. Should any nominee named herein become unable for any reason to stand for election as a director of Williams, the persons named in the proxy will vote for the election of such other person or persons as the Nominating Committee may recommend and the Board of Directors may propose to replace such nominee or, if none, the Nominating Committee will recommend that the size of the Board be reduced. Williams knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve.

The names of the nominees and the directors whose terms of office will continue after the 2001 Annual Meeting, their principal occupations during the past five years, other directorships held, and certain other information are set forth below.

COMMITTEES, MEETINGS, AND DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The Board of Directors has the responsibility for establishing broad corporate policies and for the overall performance of Williams. However, the Board is not involved in the day-to-day operations of Williams. The Board is kept informed of Williams' business through discussions with the Chief Executive Officer and other officers, by reviewing analyses and reports provided to it on a regular basis, and by participating in Board and Committee meetings.

The Board of Directors held 18 meetings during 2000. No director attended less than 75 percent of the Board and Committee meetings. The Board has established standing committees to consider designated matters. The Committees of the Board are Executive, Audit, Nominating, and Compensation. In accordance with the By-laws of Williams, the Board of Directors annually elects from its members the members and chairman of each Committee.

Executive Committee. Members: Keith E. Bailey, Chairman, Glenn A. Cox, James C. Lewis, Peter C. Meinig, Gordon R. Parker, and Joseph H. Williams.

The Executive Committee is authorized to act for the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of Williams, except as such authority may be limited from time to time by the laws of the State of Delaware. The Executive Committee did not meet in 2000.

Audit Committee. Williams' has an Audit Committee composed of nonemployee directors for which information regarding the functions performed by the Committee, its membership, and the number of meetings held during the year, is set forth in the "Report of the Audit Committee," included in this Proxy Statement. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. A copy of this charter is included in Appendix A.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee oversees Williams' financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of Williams' accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and Williams including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence.

The Committee discussed with Williams' internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of Williams' internal controls, and the overall quality of Williams' financial reporting. The Committee held six meetings during 2000.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of Williams' independent auditors.

Nominating Committee. Members: Gordon R. Parker, Chairman, Hugh M. Chapman, W.R. Howell, Charles M. Lillis, Frank T. MacInnis, and Joseph H. Williams.

The Nominating Committee is composed of nonemployee directors. The Nominating Committee is responsible for recommending candidates to fill vacancies on the Board as such vacancies occur, as well as the slate of nominees for election as directors by the stockholders at each Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Additionally, the Committee recommends to the Board the individual to be the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. During 2000, the Nominating Committee met three times.

Qualifications considered by the Nominating Committee for director candidates include an attained position of leadership in the candidate's field of endeavor, business and financial experience, demonstrated exercise of sound business judgment, expertise relevant to Williams' lines of business, and the ability to serve the interests of all stockholders. The Committee will consider director candidates submitted to it by other directors, employees, and stockholders. As a requisite to consideration, each recommendation must be accompanied by biographical material on the proposed candidate, as well as an indication that the proposed candidate would be willing to serve as a director if elected. Recommendations with supporting material may be sent to the attention of the Secretary.

Compensation Committee. Members: Glenn A. Cox, Chairman, Thomas H. Cruikshank, William E. Green, W.R. Howell, James C. Lewis, and Janice D. Stoney.

The members of the Compensation Committee are nonemployee directors and are not eligible to participate in any of the plans or programs that the Committee administers. The Compensation Committee approves the standard for salaries for executive officers of Williams, reviews and approves the salary budgets for all other officers of Williams, and specifically reviews and approves the compensation of the senior executives of Williams. It reviews action taken by management in accordance with the salary guidelines for executives and establishes the performance objectives for variable compensation for executives. It also approves stock option grants for the executive officers named herein. See the "Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation" elsewhere herein. During 2000, the Compensation Committee met five times.

Compensation of Directors. Employee directors receive no additional compensation for service on the Board of Directors or Committees of the Board. Nonemployee directors receive an annual retainer of $12,000 in cash and 750 shares of Common Stock. They also receive an annual committee retainer of $4,000 for serving on the Audit, Nominating or Compensation Committees. Chairmen of the Audit, Nominating and Compensation Committees receive an additional annual retainer of $2,500. Nonemployee directors also receive $1,000 for each Board meeting attended, $500 for each Audit, Nominating or Compensation Committee meeting attended and $750 for each Executive Committee meeting attended.

Under Williams' 1996 Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors, a nonemployee director may elect to receive all or any part of cash fees in the form of Common Stock or deferred stock. Deferred stock may be deferred to any subsequent year or until such individual ceases to be a director. Dividend equivalents are paid on deferred shares and may be received in cash or reinvested in additional deferred shares. Four directors elected to defer fees under this plan in 2000.

Under the 1996 Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors, all nonemployee directors receive an annual stock option grant of 4,000 shares of Williams' Common Stock. The options are exercisable on the date of grant and remain exercisable for ten years so long as the director remains a director of Williams. The exercise price is equal to the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant as defined by the Plan.

All directors are reimbursed for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board or any Committee or otherwise by reason of their being a director.

RETIREMENT PLAN

Williams' pension plan is a noncontributory, tax-qualified defined benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The pension plan generally includes salaried employees of Williams who have completed one year of service. Except as noted below, executive officers of Williams participate in the pension plan on the same terms as other full-time employees.

Effective April 1, 1998, Williams converted its pension plan from a final average pay plan to a cash balance pension plan. Each participant's accrued benefit as of that date was converted to a beginning account balance. Account balances are credited with an annual Company contribution and quarterly interest allocations. Each year Williams allocates to an employee's pension account an amount equal to a percentage of eligible compensation. Such percentage is based upon the employee's age according to the following table:

AGE - - - -	PERCENTAGE OF ALL ELIGIBLE PAY -----	+	PERCENTAGE OF ELIGIBLE PAY GREATER THAN THE SOCIAL SECURITY WAGE BASE -----
30.....	4.5%	+	1%
30-39.....	6%	+	2%
40-49.....	8%	+	3%
50+.....	10%	+	5%

For employees, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, who were active employees and plan participants on March 31, 1998, and April 1, 1998, the percentage of all eligible pay is increased by an amount equal to the sum of 0.3 percent multiplied by the participant's total years of service prior to March 31, 1998. Interest is credited to account balances quarterly at a rate determined annually in accordance with the terms of the plan. The normal retirement benefit is a monthly annuity based on an individual's account balance as of benefit commencement. The plan defines eligible compensation to include salary and bonuses. Normal retirement age is 65. Early retirement may begin as early as age 55. At retirement, employees are entitled to receive a single-life annuity or one of several optional forms of payment having an equivalent actuarial value to the single-life annuity.

Participants who were age 50 or older as of March 31, 1998, were grandfathered under a transitional provision that gives them the greater of the benefit payable under the cash balance formula or the final average pay formula based on all years of service and compensation. Mr. Bailey, Mr. Bumgarner, Mr. McCarthy, and Mr. von Glahn are covered under this grandfather provision.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, currently limits the pension benefits that can be paid from a tax-qualified defined benefit plan, such as the pension plan, to highly compensated individuals. These limits prevent such individuals from receiving the full pension benefit based on the same formula as is applicable to other employees. As a result, Williams has adopted an unfunded supplemental retirement plan to provide a supplemental retirement benefit equal to the amount of such reduction to every employee, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, whose benefit payable under the pension plan is reduced by Internal Revenue Code limitations.

Total estimated annual benefits payable at normal retirement age under the cash balance formula from both the tax qualified and the supplemental retirement plans are as follows:

Keith E. Bailey.....	$828,230
John C. Bumgarner, Jr.	276,463
Howard E. Janzen.....	571,227
Jack D. McCarthy.....	192,897
William G. von Glahn.....	186,027

The following schedule illustrates projected annual retirement benefits under the final average pay formula, payable from both the tax qualified and the supplemental retirement plans based on various levels of final average annual compensation and years of service. The benefits are not subject to deduction for any offset amounts:

As of December 31, 2000, the years of credited service under the pension plan for the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, who are grandfathered under the final average pay formula, were: Mr. Bailey, 27; Mr. Bumgarner, 24; Mr. McCarthy, 14; Mr. von Glahn, 16.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS AND CHANGE IN CONTROL SEVERANCE PLAN

As authorized by the Board of Directors, Williams previously had separate employment agreements with certain of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table and certain other individuals. In 1998, Williams and all but one of the executive officers entered into agreements to terminate these employment agreements. In early 2000, the remaining employment agreement was terminated in connection with the retirement of the executive officer.

Williams has established The Williams Companies, Inc. Change in Control Severance Plan, which covers certain employees of Williams, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. The plan provides severance benefits if, within two years following a change in control of Williams, a participant's employment is terminated (i) involuntarily other than for cause, death, disability, or the sale of a business, or (ii) voluntarily for good reason. The severance benefit is a lump sum payment equal to 100 percent of the participant's annual base salary plus 100 percent of the participant's monthly base salary for each completed year of service, subject to a maximum severance benefit equal to 200 percent of the participant's annual base salary. If necessary, a participant is also entitled to receive a corresponding gross-up payment sufficient to compensate for the amount of any excise tax imposed by Internal Revenue Code Section 4999, and for any taxes imposed on such additional payment. Amounts payable under the plan are in lieu of any payments that may otherwise be payable under any other severance plan or program.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") is composed of independent outside directors. The Committee is responsible for overseeing and administering Williams' executive compensation program.

COMPENSATION POLICY

The executive compensation program of Williams is designed to serve the interests of Williams and its stockholders by aligning executive compensation with stockholder objectives and to encourage and reward management initiatives and performance. Specifically, the executive compensation program seeks to:

- (i) Attract and retain the talent needed to drive superior shareholder value and help each of Williams' businesses meet or exceed financial performance targets;
- (ii) Motivate and reward to achieve superior performance relative to industry peers;
- (iii) Align executive and shareholder interests; and
- (iv) Reinforce and reward leadership supporting Williams core values.

These objectives are met through a program comprised of base salary; annual cash bonus directly tied to business performance and individual performance; and long-term incentive opportunities primarily in the form of stock options and the selective use of deferred and restricted stock. Compensation decisions with respect to those executives named in the Summary Compensation Table are made by the Committee.

COMPENSATION PROGRAM

Total Compensation: Base salary, cash bonus targets and stock option targets for Williams' executives, including those executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, were generally established at the 50th percentile of compensation survey results. For this purpose, Williams uses compensation survey information relevant to high-performance general industry companies, to regulated and unregulated energy companies, and to communication companies, of similar size supplied by nationally known compensation consulting firms.

Base Salary: The Committee considers base salary adjustments for each of Williams' executives annually. The Committee also approves annually a merit increase budget for all executives. For 2000, the merit increase budget approved for Williams corporate, energy and gas pipeline executives was 4.2 percent; the merit increase budget approved for Williams communications executives was 5.0 percent. These targets were developed based on Williams' review of survey data indicating that estimated 2000 base salary increases for general industry executives would range from 4.1 to 4.5 percent and that estimated 2000 base salary increases for telecommunications industry executives would range from 4.7 to 5.1 percent. Within this framework, base salary increases for Williams' corporate, energy and gas pipeline executives ranged from 0 to 5.67 percent, excluding adjustment increases; base salary increases for Williams' communications executives ranged from 0 to 8.57 percent, excluding adjustment increases. The average 2000 merit increase for corporate, energy and gas pipeline executives was 3.98 percent; the average 2000 merit increase for communications executives was 4.91 percent. Specific increases for individual executives involve consideration of certain subjective factors, principally the performance of such executive over the prior compensation period.

Cash Bonus: The bonus arrangement for Mr. Bailey is discussed elsewhere herein. The executives of Williams, including the senior executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, are eligible each year for cash bonuses. The cash bonus program is designed to measure and reward both business and individual achievements. Each participant has a cash bonus target opportunity that is a percentage of base salary that can be earned when business results meet target levels of performance and individual performance achieves expectations. The cash bonus target opportunity percentages of base salary used for this purpose range from 12.5 percent for manager level participants to 75 percent for executives. Actual awards can be up to 200 percent of the target opportunity depending on achievement of business and individual performance objectives.

An executive's award for a given year is the sum of the product of (i) the percentage actual performance bears to targeted performance (the "performance factor"); (ii) the applicable weight of the component; (iii) the target opportunity percentage; and (iv) the participant's base salary, for each of the components. Awards are earned based on the extent to which pre-established performance targets are achieved. The components and weighting of the award formula are 67 percent business performance and 33 percent individual performance, with the sum of the weights for the components totaling one.

The components of business performance, except the stock option performance component, are measured by comparing actual business results to pre-established goals based on Williams' business strategies. The respective business units submit goals for these components of business performance, at threshold, target and stretch levels, to the Committee for approval in January of the plan year. Threshold and stretch levels represent the Committee's subjective assessment of performance below which there should be no bonus (the threshold level) and performance at which 200 percent of the bonus potential should be paid (the stretch level). If performance is at target, the performance factor used to calculate the award is 100 percent. Performance above or below target results in awards representing a linear increase/decrease from target to stretch and from target to threshold depending upon where actual performance falls. Except in unusual circumstances, there are no awards for performance below threshold. The Committee assesses WMB stock performance in January following the plan year, by comparing its total shareholder return to the total shareholder return of the S&P 500 Index and the S&P Natural Gas Index. The range for the stock performance component is 0 to 200 percent. For the senior executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, the business performance factor for 2000 was tied to Williams' stock performance, energy income applicable to common shareholders and Williams Communications Group, Inc. earnings before income taxes, depreciation and amortization. The Committee retains the discretion to adjust reported performance to allow for extraordinary, nonrecurring factors.

The Committee determines the amount of funding for an individual performance component award pool from which the actual individual performance awards are distributed. The Committee funds the pool for the plan year at 0 to 200 percent of the target level. Individual performance is measured by the performance management process, comparing individual results to pre-established individual objectives. The size of actual individual awards is impacted by the individual performance component award pool.

Long-term Compensation. The Committee's objective with respect to stock option awards is to provide a long-term component to overall compensation that aligns the interests of executives with the interests of stockholders through stock ownership. Compensation opportunities in the form of stock options serve this purpose.

Williams' 1996 Stock Plan, approved by the stockholders in 1996, permits the Committee to grant stock option awards giving executives the right to purchase Common Stock over a ten-year period at the market value per share of Williams' Common Stock, as defined by the 1996 Stock Plan, as of the date the option is granted. Stock option awards from this plan will generally be subject to three-year (one-third per year) graded vesting schedule. Stock option awards issued in 2000 were granted subject to an accelerated vesting provision which provided that if the average stock price, for five out of 10 consecutive business days, reached a level that was 1.4 times the average stock price on the first business day of the award year, rounded up to a marketable amount, the options vested immediately. Stock options granted on March 16, 2000 were vested upon grant pursuant to such accelerated vesting.

The Williams Communications Group, Inc. 1999 Stock Plan, established by the Committee and approved by stockholders in 1999, provides for issuance of Williams Communications Group, Inc. stock options to employees and members of the board of directors of Williams Communications or its affiliates. These stock option awards give executives the right to purchase WCG common stock over a ten-year period at the market value per share of WCG common stock, as defined by the plan, as of the date the option is granted. Stock option awards from this plan will generally be subject to three-year (one-third per year) graded vesting schedule. Stock option awards issued in 2000 were granted subject to an accelerated vesting provision which provided that if the average stock price, for five out of 10 consecutive business days, reached a level that was 1.5 times the average stock price on the first business day of the award year, rounded up to a marketable amount, the options vested immediately. Stock options granted on March 16, 2000 were vested upon grant pursuant to such accelerated vesting.

The Committee has established stock option award targets for each executive participant and for director and manager level participants in the stock option program. The target levels for annual stock option grants have been established based on competitive market data for each executive position and based on competitive market practices for director and manager level positions. The WMB stock option targets for corporate, energy and gas pipeline participants range from 100,000 shares for the Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer to 1,500 shares for manager-level employees. The WCG stock option targets for Williams Communications participants range from 100,000 shares for the President and Chief Executive Officer to 2,200 shares for manager-level employees. The size of actual stock option awards is tied to individual performance, as measured by the performance management process, comparing individual results to pre-established individual objectives.

Deferred Stock: Williams' 1996 Stock Plan and the Williams Communications Group, Inc. 1999 Stock Plan provide for the issuance of restricted and deferred stock, which is not distributed to the executive until the applicable restriction period lapses. Restricted and deferred stock that is not vested is normally forfeited if the executive terminates employment for any reason other than retirement, disability or death prior to the lapsing of applicable restrictions. The Committee uses restricted and deferred stock awards primarily to provide, on a selective basis, a vehicle for tying an element of compensation to the executive's willingness to remain with Williams in a way that aligns the executive's interests with those of the other stockholders.

All executives have an opportunity to defer up to 50 percent of their base salary and up to 100 percent of their cash bonus for an elective period in the form of vested deferred stock. Deferred stock cannot be sold or otherwise disposed of until the applicable deferral period lapses. Dividend equivalents are paid on Williams deferred stock. The value of the deferred stock is at risk during the deferral period since the value is tied to the stock price.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER COMPENSATION

The full Board meets in executive session each year to review Mr. Bailey's performance. The session is conducted without Mr. Bailey present, and the meeting is chaired by the Chairman of the Compensation Committee. The results of this performance review, which are shared with Mr. Bailey, are used by the Compensation Committee in making its review of Mr. Bailey's performance for compensation purposes.

As previously mentioned, a special incentive compensation program has been approved for Mr. Bailey. The program pays out entirely in restricted stock in order to weight his compensation more heavily in stock, to the extent earned. Mr. Bailey's bonus target opportunity is 100 percent of base salary when business results meet target levels of performance and individual performance achieves expectations. The maximum award potential is equal to 200 percent of base salary when business performance is at stretch level and individual performance exceeds expectations. The business performance factor for 2000 was tied to Williams' stock performance, energy income applicable to common shareholders and Williams Communications Group, Inc. earnings before income taxes, depreciation and amortization. The stock performance component of business performance was measured by comparing Williams' total shareholder return to the total shareholder return of the S&P 500 Index and the S&P Natural Gas Index. The remaining business performance components were measured against pre-established business objectives. The award earned in 2000 and awarded in January 2001 was 30,386 shares of restricted stock. This award represents 129 percent of the award target. The restricted stock awarded to Mr. Bailey vests in 2002. The restricted stock is forfeited to the extent Mr. Bailey terminates employment prior to the lapse of the restriction period whether due to resignation, voluntary retirement without prior Board consent or termination for cause. Under Mr. Bailey's leadership and direction, Williams doubled the energy segment profit reached in 1999, completed the communications segment 33,000 route-mile network on schedule, decreased segment losses compared to 1999, and implemented initiatives to support leadership goals.

A stock option grant of 100,000 shares was also approved for Mr. Bailey in 2000. This award represents 100 percent of the target for stock option awards previously established by the Committee for the Chairman,

President and Chief Executive Officer position. The specific award, relative to the target, was based on a subjective analysis of Mr. Bailey's performance.

OTHER MATTERS

Section 162(m) of the Code places a $1 million per person limitation on the tax deduction Williams may take for compensation paid to its Chief Executive Officer and its four other highest paid executive officers, except compensation constituting performance-based compensation, as defined by the Code, is not subject to the $1 million limit. The Committee generally intends to grant awards under the 1996 Stock Plan consistent with the terms of Section 162(m) so that such awards will not be subject to the $1 million limit. In other respects, the Committee expects to take actions in the future that may be necessary to preserve the deductibility of executive compensation to the extent reasonably practicable and consistent with other objectives of Williams' compensation program. In doing so, the Committee may utilize alternatives such as deferring compensation to qualify compensation for deductibility and may rely on grandfathering provisions with respect to existing compensation commitments. The Committee believes that approximately $190,000 of Mr. Bailey's compensation, otherwise deductible for 2000, exceeded the deductibility limit.
